

I support the petition to reduce the notification time of the launch of an amateur radio payload on a satellite.

Due to the dynamic nature of launch schedules, this may present a challenge. In addition, potential opportunities may arise to gain a ride within in the existing notification window.